Getting 12' 4x4 posts through the crowd is going to be tricky, especially with all those chairs and the podiums...

We need a song too. Like there was Yankee Doodle, Johnny comes marching home, we really need a song. Something that kids will sing in music class in 80 years and then freak out when they get older and realize it was the song they sang while building gallows in 2021

23 It would not be hard to build something sturdy. You would need a lot of people to carry just one 96" 2x4 into the capitol. Battery powered drill, circular saw. Lots of 2.5" inch construction screws. Cut the lumber on a lawn. Who's bringing rope?

21 There's a lot of oak trees. Though I'd leave nooses out of it as the media likes to portray public displays of them as racist.

Just build a guillotine. You can attach it to a trailer with a drop down on the uprights. Drive it in and set it up quickly.

18 I am in favor of mounting a siege on DC. Get a good gridlock going on the beltway, and the resulting traffic jam could take a long time to clear out. But that should be saved for after the main event, trap all the leftists in.

They'd get hungry pretty damned quick.

Heck, even lots of cars can traffic jam. Here in Tucson, the lights are timed downtown. Get 5 or 6 cars coordinating to go just under the timing limit, and you get a nice traffic jam in short order. Get a convenient breakdown on a freeway exit ramp, and things get interesting fast also since most of our exit ramps are single lane.

Lots of non obvious ways to disable a vehicle once you have it stopped and the hood up.

Yes, but we love our Trucker brothers and they love Trump. So lets call them to service as patriots, like the Minutemen were called! They are a huge force that needs to be embraced and called on for assistance. They will do it, they are manly men! ALL Pede Truckers, we need you to get the word out to your brothers, Patriots unite! We need you in DC. Trump needs you in DC. January 6TH. In full fucking force. Trump needs you by the 100K's to roll in and fucking help impress Congress about their error in approving this fucking Electoral Fraud! Rolling Thunder! Truckers of mass destruction!

Oh, I agree. I would love to see truckers in on the fun if not actually starting the fun.

I mean, my son was a long haul trucker for a while. He never got penalized when he got stuck in gridlock on a run. But, if they started the gridlock, then they could get in big trouble.

If a person or group wanted to cause east coast mayhem, the best way to do it would be such that nobody could prove that it was a conspiracy. You can create a lot of hassles for people with some careful thought and planning that do not cause people to get in serious trouble.

Yep, I would think so. I hope many people in that part of the world decide to Make Traffic Jams Great Again. It may happen naturally if enough people elect to drive to DC rather than fly and they delay too long.

This is something that would also work elsewhere, like other state capitols on The Day for those who can't make DC.

I think when we get there we need to make our own little autonomous zone right outside Congress. They think they can wait us out. I'll stay there till the 21st if I have to. They think we won't really do anything. I for one am going there to fight for Trump.

Emphasis on fight. I'm done worrying about optics. I'm done worrying about cops. I'm done.
